Federal Grants Workshop

Hosted by

U.S. Congressman Brad Ellsworth

April, 2009

We Need Help!

Typical grants requests

- A non-profit organization wants information on grants under the Transportation Equity Act
- A rural town wants funds to build a recreation center
- A city wants money to start a juvenile mentoring program
- A county wants grants or loans for the operation of a new museum
- A state agency wants federal loans or grants to set up child care facilities
- Local governments want grants to help first responders deal with emergency terrorist actions

Who's Eligible?

Urban Problems
and
Community Development

Most Federal funding is for organizations
and State and local communities,
not individuals

GET REGISTERED

In order to apply for a grant, you and/or your organization must complete the Grants.gov registration process.

The registration process for an Organization or an Individual can take between three to five business days or as long as two weeks if all steps are not completed in a timely manner. So please register early!

This registration process has been mandated by the Grants Executive Board (GEB) which is the governing body of Grants.gov. The GEB determined the registration process needed to be completed prior to the submission of a grant application.

*Please Note: If you register as an Organization, you will not be allowed to use the Grants.gov username and password issued for your Organization to apply for grants as an Individual. To apply for grants as an Individual you must register as an Individual and use that specific username and password issued during the Individual registration process.

Please choose one of the options below:

Organization Registration

Individual Registration

I want to Register as an Individual on my own behalf.

I want to Register on behalf of an Organization.

An individual who is responsible for submitting a grant on behalf of a company, state, local, or tribal government, academia or research institution, not-for-profit or any other institution.

CFDA

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance

Thank you for visiting CFDA.gov!

We are upgrading our site to provide increased transparency, greater access to assistance information and to better support the American Recovery and Reinvestment Plan.

During this transformation, you may still access the current print edition of the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) by downloading this Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf) file.

You may need Adobe Acrobat Reader to view this file.

As you know, the CFDA provides a full listing of all Federal programs available to State and local governments (including the District of Columbia); federally-recognized Indian tribal governments; Territories (and possessions) of the United States; domestic public, quasi-public, and private profit and nonprofit organizations and institutions; specialized groups; and individuals.

Once you have found the Federal assistance program you want, please contact the office that administers the program for application instructions.

Transformation Status:

- The new contract was awarded on January 16th to redevelop the CFDA web site
- The new CFDA web site will be operational by April 21st, 2009
- We have retired the legacy CFDA web site and provided the FY2008 PDF file version for research purposes in accordance with our contractual obligation
- We have informed our Federal agency partners of the status and will continue to keep them posted on our progress

Thank you for your patience during our transformation.

Grants Resource Center

Each year billions of dollars are distributed in federal grant and loan money to institutions and organizations throughout the country. The 8th District's outstanding universities and colleges, non-profit organizations, small businesses, and local governments are well-qualified to compete for these funds. While the grant application process can be complicated and time-consuming, I am here to help. This page is designed to provide information and resources to Indiana institutions and organizations seeking federal funds.

Putting Hoosiers Back to Work

Without question, the most important issue Congress will address this year is the current economic crisis. Throughout our country, millions of Americans have lost their jobs and their homes, and millions more are worried about pink slips and foreclosure notices. I'm hearing from retirees who have seen their life savings disappear overnight, and parents who lie awake wondering how they'll ever provide for their children and save for college too.

As we move forward, it's important to remember that the economic crisis impacts us all, and it will take all of us working together to turn things around.

I promise to do my part by supporting common sense ideas to put Hoosiers back to work, invest in our schools and communities, and get our economy moving again.

In addition, I want to make sure you have the latest information about economic recovery efforts in Congress and resources to help individuals and communities weather the economic storm. This page is designed to do just that with a breakdown of key provisions of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, resource centers for individuals and communities seeking assistance, and a link to a new website that tracks spending in the economic recovery plan and holds public officials accountable for spending these funds wisely.

I hope you will find this information helpful; please don't hesitate to let me know how we can improve these resources for you. Together, we will turn our economy around.

Getting Started

Step 1: Register

The first step in the grant application process is to register at <http://www.grants.gov/>. The registration process is simple and will allow you to take the next steps to receive funding.

Step 2: Research Opportunities

After you are registered, the next step is to gather information about grants you may qualify for. Federal funding, as well as private or corporate foundation funds are available. If you are seeking a grant for a local project, local community foundations may also have money available. I encourage you to take a look at my Grant Resources On the Web \(G.R.O.W.\) Newsletter for more information about current opportunities. There are also many helpful links provided in the Resources for Finding Grants section below.

Step 3: Get More Information

Once you have identified some possible sources of funding, I encourage you to contact the programs and foundations for more information. Be sure to note things like application guidelines and deadlines.

Step 4: Apply

Once you are ready to apply, I invite you to take a moment to review the How to Write Grant Proposals section below to prepare yourself for the writing process. A well-written proposal is an important part of gaining funding for your project.

Grant Resources On the Web \(G.R.O.W.\) Newsletter \(SUBSCRIBE\)

My G.R.O.W. newsletter will provide you with a list of existing grant opportunities from the Federal government and non-governmental organizations you may qualify for. Be sure to subscribe to receive an updated list every couple of weeks and ensure you have the latest information about funding opportunities that may be available to you.

Overview

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act became law on February 17, 2009. Congress and President Obama have decided to commit $787 billion in spending and tax relief in hopes of stimulating the economy and creating jobs. Governor Daniels has made clear his priorities in carefully using Indiana's portion: jobs and speed.

Much of the federal stimulus package funding that will come to Indiana will be distributed via formula-based funding. A formula distribution means that allocations will be made to certain recipients through existing formulas in use by the federal government.

According to current information, Indiana expects to receive about $4.3 billion in formula funding. Here are categories with the largest amounts of projected funding:

- Medicaid: $1.4 billion
- Education: $1.3 billion
- Roads and Bridges: $650 million
- Nutrition: $400 million
- Weatherization: $100 million
- Water Quality: $100 million
- Housing: $100 million
- Public Transit: $80 million
- Energy: $70 million
- Employment Services: $70 million
- Child Care: $40 million

Top Giving Foundations: Indiana

The following list of top giving foundations in Indiana is derived from The Grantsmanship Center's funding databases. All of the foundations listed have been prescreened to ensure that they have a staff, issue RFPs, or otherwise indicate an interest in receiving proposals. This also means that some foundations who give large amounts of money have been omitted because they do not meet these qualifications. A maximum of forty foundations is listed for each state.

More detailed information about these foundations- including their program areas, types of funding, application procedures, and more- can be found on GrantDomain - The Grantsmanship Center's exclusive online database of funding information.
